Note: All parents are kindly requested to supervise their children's selection of books. This platform gives open access to substantial information, it is highly recommended and advised to observe closely what type of information is being accessed by your child. The school has no control of all the material published. We appreciate the efforts and support you extend to your children to enable them to have library opportunities.

In case you face issues logging into your Follett account, please send us an email and we will be glad to assist you.
